The Town of Leesburg in partnership with The Historic District Residents Association (www.leesburg-hdra.org) and the Leesburg Daybreak Rotary (www.idrcva.org) welcome you to participate in our annual 4th of July parade. Join us in recreating the tradition of a town and its neighbors joining in a patriotic celebration of our nation's birthday. Also, plan to come to the Courthouse lawn after the parade for a short program including a living history presentation with dignitaries from the past, as well as patriotic music performances.

GUIDELINES FOR PARTICIPATION

- All entries must be decorated in a patriotic theme.
- No fireworks, candy and/or handouts allowed. This may cause you to be pulled from the parade.
- Animals units must provide waste cleanup.
- Any person operating a motorized vehicle must be at least 18 years old, have a valid drivers license and obey all traffic signs.
- The use of sirens & air horns must be limited.
- Performances in front of Re-viewing Stand are strictly limited to 2 minutes.
- All other categories judged at Ida Lee before parade begins.
